A Note from Pastor Karla

Hello Friends,

I was browsing the greeting card aisle in Target the other day and was reminded that it is graduation time—that time in a young person's life when we mark either moving up to the next level of education or out into the adult world. It can be a scary time for many graduates, but an exciting time as well as we celebrate movement and accomplishment. We are having our own graduation at the Red Brick Preschool this year, the first of many I hope, as we help kids and their families transition into a new season as well. Not only do we celebrate our young people at this time, but we also celebrate the change of season, moving from spring to summer. Our days become longer and our nights get shorter. This time of year is all about change and transition.

T.S. Eliot once wrote “And to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from.” Every life transition has an end, a middle, and a beginning. It matters how we end things. In order to make space for what is new, we must relinquish the old.

This idea from Elliott is applicable to all of our lives, as we mature, not just physically, but emotionally and spiritually as well. The end AND the beginning are necessary for true change, for true transformation. The problem is transition can't Beginning June 24, Pastor Karla's Summer series will explore all the ways in which we can Love Our Neighbor. Representatives from several of our Mission Partners will be featured during the summer services. We hope you will join us!

Session Meeting Highlights

John Spafford, Clerk
May 23, 2018

Session Personnel Committee Chairman Dwight Kellogg presented to Session a completed PLCPC Employee Handbook for approval. The editing process included referrals to civil regulations and consultations with experts. The Session thanked staff and church members for their efforts as they approved the document. Next month Session will review the Preschool Employee Handbook that includes additional regulatory provisions.

Session gratefully accepted Rev. Dr. Chris Lenocker’s offer to serve as official Parish Associate for PLCPC.

Planning Chair Samantha Przywitowski led a follow-up discussion of topics the Session addressed at the May 12 retreat.

Session adopted three Values that help define PLCPC and provide touchstones for program and event development:

- We are a Good Home
- We are Intergenerational
- We Inspire Engagement

Renovation Committee Chairman Douglas Buser presented an update of surveys conducted to date of renovation projects and Pastor Karla Shaw laid out an overview of a renovation process. The Session approved the formation of an ad hoc Renovation Task Force that will conduct church-wide surveys and interviews focused on the Christian Education Wing and Family Life Center, gathering needs, wishes and visions. The Task Force will ally with the existing Education Task Force, prioritize projects and provide cost estimates. The Task Force will be nominated by Rev. Shaw and Mr. Buser and approved by Session. Mr. Buser will serve as Session Representative to this Task Force.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT—PRAYER QUILT MINISTRY

A prayer quilt is a gift of love and prayer for someone in special need. It is a statement of our faith in God and His power to comfort, strengthen and heal. The “Three Commandments” of Prayers & Squares are:

- 1) Remember the Prayers & Squares motto: “It’s not about the quilt, it’s all about the prayer.” The purpose of our ministry is to provide prayers, not to make and give away quilts.
- 2) ASK PERMISSION before you give the gift of a prayer quilt to someone in need. Before tying a prayer quilt for an individual, the person must agree to accept the gift of prayer in the form of a quilt.

take place in our lives if we are unwilling to let go and "come to the end" of something. None of us would ever suggest remaining in the third grade forever to a child, nor would we be happy if, as we aged, we continued to have the mind of a first grader. So why do we remain stagnate in other areas of our lives instead of graduating to new ideas, new ways of living, even new ways of being?

What is it you need to graduate from in your life? Asked a different way, what do you need to let go of to move forward, more specifically, in your relationship with Christ? The session and staff have been pondering these very questions for the life of our church. As we continue to move into unfamiliar territory, in a world that is rapidly changing, some of our old ways of being and doing will need to shift so we can share Christ with the next generations. But letting go is hard, particularly when the future remains fuzzy.

I ask you this summer to commit to praying about what God wants you to release in your own life, so you might "graduate" to the next level of intimacy with Christ. While doing so, I also ask that you pray that same prayer for our church, that we might become who God is calling us to be in this place in 2018.

I am glad we are in this together!

NEW MEMBERS

On May 6, 2018, we were introduced to our latest class of New Members. Learn more about them and welcome them to our community.

Renovation Update: The staff are settling into their new offices!

We are grateful for the generosity of so many people that made this a project a reality. Sue Skala, Michael Huff and Suzy Spafford for their creative input and to the Men@Work crew who did various projects to keep the renovation moving along. Many of the contractors that we worked with gave additional discounts because they see the work that God is doing here. Their generosity is an inspiration to us all! Morgan Golf of MLG Construction, Ron Rice Painters, Zion Electric and Layer7 phone and internet systems.

This project would not have been possible without the generous gift from Ms. Engel, who left a significant portion of her estate to the church in the 1980's.

It takes many hands and generous hearts to build and strengthen the church. We feel honored to be a part of this church at this time as we honor the legacy and build for the future.
