A Note from Pastor Karla

The rhythms of our year, both inside and outside of the church, are not necessarily in alignment anymore with our daily realities. No longer being an agrarian society, most of us don't "bring in the harvest" during the fall months. We aren't in the fields, getting our hands dirty, reaping what we have sown, and, yet, metaphorically speaking, the rhythm at this time of year begs us to pause and celebrate the work that has been done in us and through us over these past months. Despite most of us no longer being farmers, I am thankful we still pause. And even more so, I am thankful we still give thanks. As somehow in that simple gesture of gratitude, even for those that have a hard time trusting in a Divine Being, there is acknowledgment of a force moving in our world whose result is Grace.

Looking back on the sowing done here through many of you at PLCPC this past year, we have much to be thankful for! The countless volunteer hours gifted through faith that God is not finished with us yet, the sacrificial giving of your resources that has kept our doors open and our ministry thriving, along with the plethora of skills that have been unleashed this year. We would not be the church without all of our faith and commitment. Thank you for allowing God in to your life.

In this season of thanks, there is also a built in opportunity for renewal. As the days grow shorter and the nights longer, the blanket of darkness draws us inward for self-reflection. In the treasure found where our roots grow deep, we are reminded that we don't give out of our own strength, because if we do then we will most certainly become bitter and tired. Instead God calls us to abide in Him and out of that abiding, God will bless us with what we need and God will work through His blessing. God will give even beyond your expectations. So, as we emerge out of our "Year of Celebration" and enter into our year of "With Everything," I pray that we all yield to God's presence in our lives, that we pay attention to the work God is doing, and through that, with open hands, we let God take our lives and work His wonder through us and our church. May it be so.

In Grace,
Pastor Karla

Session Meeting Highlights October 24, 2018 Meeting

As we enter the fourth quarter of the year the Session focused mostly on financial issues in the October meeting. While concerned that current payments on pledges are about $50,000 under budget, Session reviewed the "With Everything" giving campaign for 2019 with enthusiasm and hope. Session elders received their own giving forms and will be prayerfully planning their commitments for 2019.

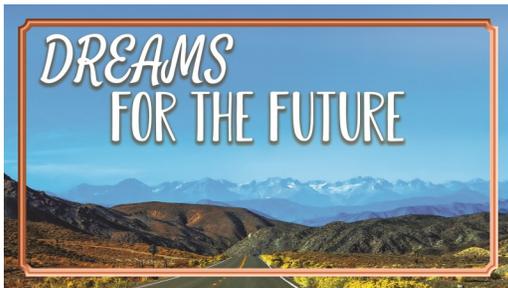

The 2019 budget is in process for preliminary approval in December and final approval in January, once commitments have been received. The expense budget will follow a plan of "2019 Funding Priorities" that the Session adopted. These priorities are adapted from our Vision, Mission and Values Statements.

The Session reviewed the next steps planned by the Renovation Task Force. On Nov. 10 and 11 the Task Force will guide members and friends of the church on tours of the education wing and other areas of renovation interest. Then everyone will be invited to share their own "Dreams for the Future." Session members will assist in these town hall meetings.

Renovation Task Force (RTF) Update

Last month, the RTF made a presentation to Session focusing on the information the committee has gathered to date by meeting with internal and external groups that use our church facilities. Additionally, $50,000 was approved to hire design professionals to prepare church campus programming and master plan documents. This information will provide the foundation of our future decision-making.

As a community church, we value the experiences and perspectives of each person.

The Renovation Task Force, formed by Session in early summer, invites you to dream with them about the future of our children, youth, preschool and music facilities on Saturday, November 10 at 10 am in the Family Life Center. All voices are necessary for this brainstorming session! If you are unable to attend the meeting on Saturday, an additional meeting will take place on Nov. 11 at 10:45 am in the Chapel. Child care, snacks and coffee will be provided.

The RTF members include John Brand-Chair, Douglas Buser, Susan Cramer, Will Hage, Bob Holst, and Melissa Mullins.

Welcome New Members!

Our September Discover our Community class concluded with eight people deciding to officially become members of the PLCPC community. We welcome them all!

Family Camp Was Fun For All!

Over the weekend of October 12-14, 101 people from PLCPC participated in our Family Camp at Camp Marston in Julian. It was a great weekend of connecting, relaxing, fun and learning for those of all ages. The theme for the weekend revolved around the idea of home, "My Heart, Christ's Home." Although it rained a bit on Saturday, that provided some good memories and a unique experience to spend time together inside the lodges playing games and having good conversations. Overall, camp was a very positive experience for those who attended and will be an ongoing staple in our efforts to minister to families and be intergenerational here at PLCPC. Please stay tuned for the 2019 camp dates!

The Tree of Life in the Family Life Center provides an opportunity for an enduring record of persons and events in the life of our church, its families and friends. Since Beverly Smith's design and the crafting by John L. Spafford in 1990, the two trees of the display have sprouted hundreds of leaves documenting the rich history of our community. The most recent leaf recognizes Tyler Cramer's 24 years of insightful legal advice to the PLCPC Session.

To request a leaf, please complete the form in the church office.

News from Finance Committee

At this time of year, many people more than 70 1/2 years old are in discussions with their financial advisor on how, when, and what to do with the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from their qualified retirement plan. The 2018 tax changes provide for a number of changes regarding charitable deductions. One of these changes is likely to be of interest to anyone with an RMD for 2018 or 2019. You may avoid paying taxes on the RMD by using a "Qualified Charitable Distribution" (QCD) directly rolled over from your IRA. A QCD amount rolled over directly to the church can cover amounts up to the RMD requirement, thus avoiding federal income tax. If the church can be of any assistance in setting up a contribution to PLCPC, contact Evelyn Lambino at (619) 233-1633 ext: 206.

Alternative Christmas Faire—November 25, 2018

The Alternative Christmas Faire is an amazingly transformational way to kick-off your holiday season. This annual event brings together almost 30 representatives from local, regional, and international missions that Point Loma Community Presbyterian Church actively supports, as well as representatives from the various ministries of PLCPC. Dedicate a portion of your Christmas budget to meaningful missions, in the name of those you love! You will receive a gift card thanking the recipient for the contribution that has been made in their name. Please come by before and after Worship on Sunday, November 25 and be part of how PLCPC is sharing God's love around the world.

Calling all Crafters!

This year's Alternative Christmas Faire will also feature the return of the crafters! If you are a crafter AND are willing to donate 25% of your sales to the PLCPC ministry of your choice, we would love to have you participate. Contact Coordinators Monica Ball at 619-708-3512 or mbrealestate@cox.net or Kate Miller at 619-952-7549 or k8thmiller@gmail.com

Children's Ministries is looking for a committed team of volunteers to help launch the new Kids Cafe worship service at the 9:45am hour. Please attend a brief informational meeting on Sunday, November 18, at 9:30 am to learn more about this exciting new kids program and how you can help! The meeting will take place in the church Library. If you cannot attend and still want to volunteer please contact Karen Connor, karen@pointlomachurch.org.
