No. 10

A Note from Pastor Ed

Presbyterian founder John Calvin asserted that gratitude... constitutes the chief exercise of godliness, in which God would have us to be engaged during the whole of life. In other words, gratitude is the primary attitude by which God measures our spiritual maturity: the more grateful we are the more like God we are becoming! That sounds like a huge challenge. While it is relatively easy to be thankful when life is free of problems, it is much more difficult when facing personal concerns, family problems, health challenges, financial struggles, and spiritual questions.

Rather than dismiss John Calvin's opinion as unrealistic for our complex world, I invite you to consider his challenge in light of Martin Rinkart. Rinkart is best known today as the author of the thanksgiving hymn Now Thank We All Our God. He was a German pastor during the Thirty Years War that decimated much of Europe. His walled town of Eilenberg became a refuge for the steady stream of hungry and homeless survivors who had been displaced by the war. At the peak of this turmoil, when Rinkart was the only pastor in town, he conducted as many as 40-50 funerals per day.

In 1636, amid this prolonged agony, he wrote the words to his well-loved hymn. The first verse was originally written as a table grace for Rinkart's family after meals. Listen to the words now that you know their background:

Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom His world rejoices;
who, from our mother's arms,
hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

How could Rinkart write this inspiring hymn of thanksgiving amid continual death and destruction? (Continued on page 6)

How can you bring God's Love to many ministries and thousands of people this Christmas season right here on our PLCPC campus?

The Tree of Life

The Tree of Life in the Family Life Center provides an opportunity for an enduring record of persons and events in the life of our church, its families and friends. Since Beverly Smith's design and the crafting by John L. Spafford in 1990, the two trees of the display have sprouted hundreds of leaves documenting the rich history of our community.

To request a leaf, please complete the form in the church office.

SERVE Opportunities: Saturday, November 5, join us for our big SERVE day, and November 20 for family SERVE

All participants are asked to board buses at PLCPC at 7:30 am to be taken to the project sites in Logan Heights (please do not drive your own vehicle). After the morning session we will meet for lunch at the Boys and Girls Club and then go back to the projects for the afternoon session. Buses will pick up everyone at 3:30 pm and bring them back to PLCPC. Projects include four to six home enhancements, a community project, and a hospitality team.

Sign-ups are almost full, but check out <http://vhub.at/plcpc> to see if there is still space available. Everyone MUST sign-up online and must be age 14 and up. Each family member must register separately.

On Sunday, November 20 in the Family Life Center, we invite you to family SERVE. For those of you with kids under the age of 14 who are not able to participate on our big SERVE day, join us from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm in the Family Life Center to make toiletry kits for Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. These kits will help those domestically and nationally who are involved in major disasters. Please let us know of your attendance by emailing Pastor Karla at karla@pointlomachurch.org. Lunch will be provided.

Moms’ Bible Study—Mondays, 9:15-10:30 am, Parlor. For moms of kids elementary age and younger. Pastor Karla is leading us in a study on Mudhouse Sabbath, by Lauren Winner. In November we will do a two-part series on Spiritual Practices for Families. Free childcare provided by contacting cynthia@pointlomachurch.org. There will be no Bible study on November 7 or 21.

Rachel Circle—3rd Mondays, 9:30 am, Library. For our meeting on November 21, our own Judy White will enlighten us with the history of Presbyterian Women. Come join us at 9:30 and bring a friend. For questions, contact Judy at (858) 565-6375.

Tuesday Morning Women’s Bible Study—9:00 am in the Parlor for women of all ages. Pastor Karla is leading a study on “How to Read the Bible for All Its Worth.” For questions contact: Clara Blenis (619) 223-5950. There will be no Bible study on November 8 or 22.

Men@Work—Wednesdays at 8:30 am in the Library. Em Cummins will lead us in a discussion of Pastor Ed’s sermon from the previous Sunday. Thank you, Em, for purchasing new Bibles for our group! Contact: Don Griffith at don-pete@cox.net.

Wednesday Men’s Bible Study—During October we will suspend our study to attend the sessions of TALK RACE—CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION in the Chapel from 6:45 to 7:15 pm. Contact: jamesgrisolia@gmail.com.

The Bridge will meet on Friday, November 4 and November 18, from 6:30 to 8 pm in the Parlor. The Bridge, a casual study group for 20s-40s, meets every other Friday. Child care is available for a small fee. This fall we are reading Learning to Walk in the Dark by Barbara Brown Taylor. Contact: Julia Roller at juliaroller@yahoo.com for more info, or to RSVP.

Was he in denial that prevented him from seeing life’s challenges clearly? Or were his heart and mind numbed by the endless demands of burying thousands of people? In reality the words of this hymn reveal the answer and announce the same truth revealed in scripture. He was not in denial, nor was the apostle Paul when he wrote from his prison cell, “Rejoice in the Lord always, again I will say, Rejoice.” (Philippians 4:4)

Over the years one of my faith struggles has been to thank God for the good times and to try to forget the hard times. How easy it is to divide our lives into the happy days to remember and the painful moments to forget. Once we accept the division we quickly develop an attitude which hopes to collect more good memories than bad, more things to be thankful for than regrets to resent, more experiences to celebrate than to complain about. But this attitude leads to a dead-end when it comes to gratitude.

Henri Nouwen has been my spiritual mentor for a number of years and helped me rethink my attitude toward gratitude. He writes: “Gratitude in its deepest sense means to live life as a gift to be received gratefully. But gratitude as the gospel speaks about it embraces all of life: the good and the bad, the joyful and the painful, the holy and the not so holy.”

As we enter the Thanksgiving season, may we cultivate an attitude of gratitude which thanks God for all of life: good and the bad, the glad and the sad, the holy and the not so holy. Often we discover in those not so good, not so glad, not so holy moments that God has been most present with us!

Gratefully Yours,
Pastor Ed

Alternative Christmas Faire

Sunday, November 27, 2016
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
Family Life Center

Your Best Christmas ~ Guaranteed!

The Alternative Christmas Faire is an amazingly transforming way to kick-off your Christmas Season. This annual event brings together many representatives from local, regional, and international missions that PLCPC actively supports. All are eager to answer your questions about how they are sharing the love of Christ near and far.

Dedicate a portion of your Christmas budget to meaningful Mission giving in the name of those you love! You will receive a gift card acknowledging your contribution made in their name.

Please come by before and after church on Sunday, November 29, and be part of how PLCPC is sharing God's love around the world, remembering the Christ of Christmas every day.

Not here on November 27? No problem! We will have an Alternative Christmas table on the Plaza each Sunday until Christmas, so you may also make your contributions later.

Brought to you by your Missions Beyond Committee
Contact Monica Ball at (619) 708-3512
or email mbrealestate@cox.net

Boy Scout Troop 24

will be taking pre-orders for wreaths ($20 each) and evergreen centerpieces ($15 each) at the Alternative Christmas Faire.

The wreaths will be available for sale or pick-up from a pre-order on the Plaza the first 2 Sundays in December.

Please consider supporting our Boy Scouts this season with a holiday decoration purchase.

Endowment

Have you been receiving notices from your tax advantaged IRA account of a required minimum distribution and don't want any further personal taxation this year? There is helpful news for you. One can donate directly to the PLCPC endowment fund from an IRA that requires a minimum distribution. The PLCPC tax number is 95-1648185 and "Endowment" must be stipulated.

A little background: For taxpayers over the age of 70 ½, Congress has voted to make permanent the exclusion from income of up to $100,000 per person, per year, for Individual Retirement Account (IRA) distributions which are given directly to charities. This ends the uncertainty which has existed for the past several years when taxpayers were trying to decide whether to direct their IRA distributions to charity. One of the key benefits of the direct charitable contribution from your IRA is that the distribution counts towards your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). You can contribute more than your RMD to charity as long as you do not exceed $100,000 in a calendar year. The gift can satisfy a pledge that you have made. However you may not receive anything (other than an intangible religious benefit) from the charity as a quid pro quo for your contribution. The charity must provide you an acknowledgement stating the amount of the charitable distribution and that no goods, services, or benefits of any kind were or will be provided to you in consideration for the distribution from the IRA. Also, the contribution cannot go to a donor-advised fund, supporting organization or private foundation.

Disclaimer: This is provided for information only limited to IRAs and is not tax advice as each taxpayer's situation is different. US Tax laws are complex and you should always consult your tax advisor in advance.

MOM Christmas Toy Drive

November is the month when we donate toys for the children of E-5 and below military families that are part of Military Outreach Ministries. The toys are for children ages newborns to 12 years.

Please bring unwrapped toys to the MOM's table on the Plaza every Sunday in November, or leave them in the MOM's toy box in the church office during the week.

For non-shoppers, donations of cash or checks (made out to PLCPC) are very welcome to help purchase bicycles, in particular, and other toys.

On December 3, the MOM's Toy Store will be in the Family Life Center all set up and ready for the military families to "shop" for their children.

If you would like to help with the set-up, please sign up on the Plaza on Sundays. For more information please contact Ed Lynds at (619) 223-1472 or elynds@cox.net.
