A Note from Pastor Ed

I had an identity crisis as a young person. As an identical twin, my parents gave me and my brother near identical names: Edwin and Erwin. As a boy, I remember wearing identical t-shirts with our names monogrammed on the front. The kids in the neighborhood couldn't tell us apart so they called both of us Twin-Boy. We shared the same bedroom through our childhood and teenage years. We were in the same school classes through junior high. My mother bought us identical clothes up through our high school graduation.

By the time my brother and I reached high school, we rebelled against our identity being cast as one person. The one who got to the closet first in the morning could choose what he was going to wear. The other had to choose something else. We chose different educational paths. My brother chose math and science. I chose literature and the arts. We chose different vocational directions. My brother prepared to become a physician. I prepared for the ministry.

Throughout my life I have struggled to define my identity apart from my family of origin. I chose to attend a state college, rather than the university my mother attended. I chose to attend a seminary different than the Bible school my dad attended. I chose a different denomination in which to serve, rather than the tradition in which I was raised. My life path has been about discovering a unique identity all my own.

I think churches go through a similar identity crisis from time to time. Very often, people identify with their pastor so much that they talk about being married in the church when Pastor X was the pastor, or joining the church when Pastor Y was the pastor. Sometimes, people refer to the church as Pastor Z's church. When writing the history of a church, often church historians will refer to the decade when Pastor A was the senior pastor, or the era when Pastor B was the associate pastor.

The truth is that the church does not belong to any pastor. The church belongs to Jesus Christ the Head of the Church. The interim season is a time when a congregation can examine its identity (continued on page 7)

The Tree of Life

The Tree of Life in the Family Life Center provides an opportunity for an enduring record of persons and events in the life of our church, its families and friends. Since Beverly Smith's design and the crafting by John L. Spafford in 1990, the two trees of the display have sprouted hundreds of leaves documenting the rich history of our community. The Prayer Quilt Ministry honors three of its members:

Mildred Clack - For your service to the Prayer Quilt Ministry as an ambassador of prayer. August 2016
 Laura Amick With gratitude for the mementos she created for the Prayer Quilt Ministry, August 2016
 Susie Mueller - For your heart for the Prayer Quilt Ministry and those in need of prayer. August 2016

In Loving Memory of Nancy McCleary from Larry, Mike, Judy and Grandchildren 1939—2016

Welcome R.O. Smith and Family

Born and raised in Norman, Oklahoma, “RO” is an enthusiastic college sports fan. After graduating from Texas A&M University and participating in the Corps of Cadets, he spent six and one-half years as a Program Director at Spring Hill Camps in Ewart, Michigan. It was at camp that he met his wife, Mindy. Shortly after they were married, they moved to California to attend Fuller Theological Seminary where RO attained a Masters of Arts in Theology with an emphasis on Youth, Family & Culture.

RO served as Director of Youth Discipleship at Bel Air Church in Los Angeles for over 12 years. He has a passion for children, youth and families and deeply cares about issues of social justice. RO recently began trail running and will participate in a 50-mile race in November. RO and Mindy will be moving to San Diego with their 14-month-old daughter, Eleanor, and their little dog Scout.

We are excited to have RO as our new Café Worship Leader and Director of Student Ministry. Welcome!

Jump into Joy! Sunday, Sept. 11

Enter a variety of raffles, from discounts to the Women’s Retreat, to a free semester of MOPS, to gifts of all shapes and sizes, just by visiting the tables! Food for all and bounce house for the kids.

This is a perfect Sunday to invite neighbors and friends. All are ALWAYS welcome!

Pastor Nominating Committee Update

The PNC has reviewed the first round of 84 applications, listened to sermons, and narrowed our search to several promising candidates, while continuing to accept and review new applications. We are thrilled to be taking the next step as we begin to interview several pastors.

To the Prayer Quilt Ministry—thank you for the beautiful quilt on Prayer Quilt Sunday that was tied with prayers for continued trust, strength, wisdom and discernment. We now have the quilt at our meetings, and PNC members will take turns taking the quilt home each week. We all feel blessed to have this reminder of your steadfast prayers and trust in us as we learn what the Holy Spirit is revealing to us in this process.

Endowment

What is planned giving?

Planned giving is all about giving for the long term. Endowment funds are invested to help ensure that our church can continue its mission and ministry beyond our lifetimes. When we make a planned gift, we are giving to something that will continue in perpetuity. Part of the sense of satisfaction that comes from making a planned gift lies in the knowledge that we can make a lasting impact; we can leave a legacy for generations yet to come.

Planned gifts can be as varied as the interests of the donor. Besides cash, they can include such items as stocks and bonds or other appreciated securities, insurance policies, retirement plans, art or antique collections, real estate or other assets. The gifts may be made directly to the endowment fund or through such vehicles as trusts, charitable gift annuities, a donor advised fund or a bequest in a will.

Adult Studies and Groups

Sunday Scripture Group—10 am, Parlor. Resuming on September 18, we'll view and discuss "Following Jesus in a Land of Conflict," a 4-part Day of Discovery program. What should followers of Christ think and do about the conflict in the Middle East and its impact on both Arab and Jewish communities? Contact: Bob Simoneau grs55@cox.net.

Moms' Bible Study—Mondays, 9:15-10:30 am, Parlor. Beginning September 12, all moms (with kids elementary age and younger) are invited to study Mudhouse Sabbath by Lauren Winner. This DVD curriculum helps us incorporate Jewish spiritual disciplines into our everyday life. Led by Pastor Karla. Contact Julia Roller (juliaroller@yahoo.com) for more information. For free childcare contact Cynthia Hernandez at cynthia@pointlomachurch.org.

Rachel Circle—3rd Mondays, 9:30 am, Library. Next meeting is September 19. Come and be inspired and empowered while learning the symptoms and risk factors of GYN cancers. Presenters are our own Jill Curtiss and her survivor sisters of the Ovarian Cancer Alliance of San Diego. All are welcome; bring a friend. Contact: Marge Grant at (619) 296-2720, or shootthbreeze@gmail.com.

Tuesday Morning Women's Bible Study—9:00 am in the Parlor for women of all ages. We'll begin on September 13 with an intro class on Hermeneutics with the help of the book How to Read the Bible for All Its Worth followed by a study of the book of Acts. Class is led by Pastor Karla. For questions contact Clara Blenis (619) 223-5950.

Men@Work—Wednesdays at 8:30 am in the Library. We will resume Sept. 7, with Rev. Michael Mudgett at the helm. Contact: Don Griffith at don-pete@cox.net.

Wednesday Men's Bible Study—5:00 in the Parlor. Come join us starting September 7 as we begin a new study of the Gospel of Matthew guided by Bill Creasy. We will have an after-summer check-in, Creasy's stimulating introduction to Matthew, followed by discussion, sharing and prayer. Contact: Gerry Height at gheidt@ghhco.com or, better yet, just come.

Wednesday Refresh—7 to 8:30 pm on 1st and 3rd Weds. Home of Bob & Ginny Edwards, 2125 Locust St., 92106 (619) 222-4262. We are studying Romans. Singles, couples, all are welcome. Contact: jamesgrisolia@gmail.com.

Sermon Study Group—Thursdays from 7 to 8:30 pm. Home of Jane and Bryan Bennett. This group will resume in the fall. Contact Bryan Bennett at btb92107@gmail.com.

The Bridge will restart Friday, September 9, from 6:30 to 8 pm in the Parlor with a Game Night. The Bridge, a casual study group for 20s-40s, meets every other Friday. Child care is available for a small fee. This fall we'll be reading Learning to Walk in the Dark by Barbara Brown Taylor. Contact: Julia Roller at juliaroller@yahoo.com for more info, or to RSVP.

Breakfast—October 9

Sign up and Serve

Sunday, September 11 . . .

. . . will be the first chance to sign up for the November 5 SERVE projects. Look for the white children's playhouse on the Plaza. There you will find representatives from the PLCPC SERVE Committee, Habitat for Humanity, and Thrivent Financial Services, the major sponsor for this year's SERVE, to answer your questions and help you sign-up for the projects.

There will be several types of projects:

1. The enhancement of 6 homes in Logan Heights—roofing, painting, landscaping, tree planting, and fence work. 20 volunteers ages 14 and up are needed. Also a community enhancement project in Logan Heights is to be identified for us by Habitat. 30 volunteers will be needed.
2. Food Prep and Snack Delivery. Again, Jon Conner has agreed to feed the masses. This group will prep, cook, and serve lunch at a Logan Heights church. They also will go around to the other project sights and deliver cold drinks and snacks in the morning and afternoon. 25 volunteers needed.
3. Possibly Construct and paint children's playhouses. This project will depend on the family needs of the houses selected. 7 to 8 volunteers per playhouse. Children under 14 may be included on this project.

Before the Kick-off on September 11, talk to your friends about joining together on one team. It promises to be a fun and rewarding day of loving our neighbors.

and separate itself from some of its recent history. In fact, one of the developmental tasks of a church in transition is discovering a new identity.

This is what happened to the people of Israel in their exodus from Egypt. While slaves in Egypt, their primary identity was that they were the property of their masters. They could be beaten, raped, or killed at the master's whim. They did not belong to themselves. They were owned by others. But then Yahweh God—who was called "I AM WHO I AM"—intervened and the rest is history. A new people was born. A new identity was forged. In the document which became both their Declaration of Independence and their Constitution, the Ten Commandments opens with these words: "I AM THE LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery." (Exodus 20:2)

Our identity as the people of God always begins with the foundations of faith. We have been called out of our past into a new identity as God's covenant people. God reveals his name as the Eternal One, the great I AM, who leads us into the future. And Jesus picks up that theme when he speaks of himself saying:

- I AM the Bread of life.
- I AM the Good Shepherd.
- I AM the Light of the World.
- I AM the True Vine.
- I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
- I AM the Resurrection and the Life.
- I AM the Alpha and the Omega.

Discovering a new identity is not easy. It takes thought, prayer, discernment, courage, and compassion. During this interim season of transition, let me suggest a few character traits we might try on (again) as our new identity as God's people:

- Christ centered
- Biblically grounded
- Kingdom oriented
- Mission focused
- Servant minded
- Warm hearted
- Welcoming and inclusive
- Healing and transforming

Yours for a New Identity,

Pastor Ed

PLCPC Fall Family Picnic — September 18

Join us at Smuggler's Cove on the Naval Sub Base for a picnic with old and new friends. This is a beautiful spot with shady areas, a playground, an open grassy space, and a great view of the bay. Just bring yourself, your family, as well as your food and beverages. Sign up on our PLCPC website (go to church calendar and click on Sept. 18), or sign up at the Fall Kick-off on September 11. Please sign up even if you are a "maybe" so your name will be on the gate list. No name on list: no admittance.

All generations are welcome. Thank you Charlie MacVean for arranging the privilege of enjoying this great spot on Ballast Point.

Directions: Drive south on Rosecrans to the Sub Base gate, then follow the guard's instructions. Questions? Email the Spradlings: missyspradling@gmail.com, or ryan.spradling@cushwake.com.
